

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1862.

of Brig.-Gen. Reno in the late demonstration on Norfork. He congratulates them as well upon the many fortitude with which they endured excessive heat and extraordinary fatigue in a forced march of forty miles in twenty-four hours, as upon the indomitable courage with which, notwithstanding their exhaustion, they attacked a large body of the enemy's artillery, infantry, and cavalry in their chosen position, achieving a complete victory. It is therefore, or ered, as a deserved tribute to the perseverance, discipline, and bravery exhibited by the officers and soldiers of the 21st Massachusetts, 51st Pennsylvania, 9th New-York, 5th New-York, and 6th New-Hampshire, on the 13th of April, a day already memorable in the history of our country, that the above regiments inscribe upon their respective colors the name "Cumberland," April 19. The General Commanding desire, to express his approbation of Gen. Reno's strict observance of his orders when the temptation to follow the retreating enemy was so great.

By command of Major-Gen. Fremont.
LEWIS RICHMOND, Asst. Adj.-Gen.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND BRIGADE, DEPARTMENT OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, APRIL 20, 1862.

SIR: In the recent engagement near South Mills, owing to the lack of transportation, I was compelled to leave a few of my wounded under the charge of one of our surgeons. As it has been invariably our practice to release the wounded on parole, I confidently anticipate that you will pursue the same course, in which case you will please inform Com. Rowan at what time and place they can be received. I also request permission to remove the body of Lieut. Gadsden of the 5th New-York. The surgeon will point out the place of his interment.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your servant,
J. L. RENO, Brigadier-General.
